HOUSTON (May 4, 2010) – Greene's Energy Group, a leading provider of integrated services for drilling, production, pipeline, construction and process operations, has named Frank Mathews President of its subsidiary Devin International and Vice President of the Devin Business Group.

In his new role, he will oversee operations of both Devin International and Greene's Wellhead and Valve Services business. He will be based in the company's Houston, TX office.

Before joining Greene's, Mathews worked with Weatherford International for 31 years in various roles, including U.S. Director of Operations and global Vice President of Rental and Tubular Running Services. He attended the University of Southwestern Louisiana and participated in the Tuck Executive Program through the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College.

"Frank is an exceptional businessman with decades of experience in many areas of the industry," said CEO Bob Vilyus. "He's a proven leader, and we're excited to have him as a part of our management team."

Mathews is a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers (SPE) and the Intervention and Coiled Tubing Association (ICoTA).

Greene's Energy Group serves customers globally in drilling, production, pipeline, rig/platform construction and process industries by offering tools and services to improve productivity and ensure safety, both onshore and offshore. Greene's employs 600 people worldwide with its group headquarters in Houston and operations headquarters in Lafayette, La.
